Popular Beaver Bank Gas Stop Closes

As most of you probably know by now an iconic landmark in our beloved Beaver Bank closed its doors on July 11, 2016. The Beaver Bank Wilson's Gas and Kwik Way, previously called Hartlen's Esso, was a convenient and friendly business where local residents could pop in to pick up a few staples for the cupboard, fill up on gas or furnace oil, share local news and even get a haircut!

The closure is deemed a devastating loss for the community. Comments on several Facebook pages reflect this sentiment. "This is a huge loss", "The only place I'd go to get my haircut, growing up in Beaver Bank! Lol, sad to see it go". And features several sad face emoji's.

Lack of customers has been cited as the reason for the closure. Local MLA Bill Horne has called it a devastating loss for the community and Councillor Brad Johns stated that it was very unfortunate.

On a happier note sources tell the Bulletin that we may expect a new Pizza Take Out and Convenience which is currently under construction where Joey's Convenience used to be located. Something to look forward to for Middle and Upper Beaver Bankers. Smiley emoji.

Update from Station 48 – It Has Been a Busy Summer

Summer is slowly winding down as we move into September; students have returned to school and cooler days are ahead.

Over the summer the fire department has been busy responding to calls and keeping up our training. Since the last update we have responded to 31 pages for assistance; 16 medical assists, 8 illegal burns, 4 motor vehicle accidents, 2 structure fires and 1 brush fire. This brings our total to 88 calls so far this year. Medical assists made up over half of the calls followed by reported illegal burns running a close second for this period.

With September upon us, we would like to take some time to share some tips and pass along some friendly reminders to help everyone so that we don't have to stop by and pay you a visit. With the very dry summer and lack of rain, at times the risk of forest fires was very high to extreme. This meant there were many times that burning was banned which included campfires. As the rules for the burning season are still in effect, please check online daily to see if you can or cannot burn. Your fire department would like to thank everyone for abiding by the issued burn bans and ask that everyone continue to burn responsibly when permitted.

Even though hurricane season started in June and runs until November, September is also the time we start to have a higher chance of wild weather visiting.

Being prepared for hurricanes and tropical storms which could come our way is always a good practice to get in to. Having an emergency kit that can support you and your family for 72 hours without outside assistance is recommended. You can visit www.halifax.ca/emo and check out the links that will provide guidance on being prepared for wildfires, hurricanes, or floods. For those who have generators, check your equipment out, familiarize yourself with the operation and safety features, and make sure it is ready to go. As an added precaution, only run generators outside to prevent dangerous fumes from building up inside your home or garage. An ounce of prevention and preparation now may be key if a real emergency arises.

As we travel around the community coming back from calls or while out on training, we always keep an eye out to see if there are areas where civic signs are not easily seen from the road. We always ask "Would first responders be able to locate you quickly in an emergency?" We encourage homeowners to take a few minutes and check to see if your civic sign can be easily seen day or night from the road. Over time, vegetation, construction or small changes may affect the ability to see these signs which could lead to a loss of precious moments for first responders getting the required help to you in an emergency. If you require a civic sign, the fire department can help you out. Visit the fire station on a Tuesday night from 7 PM to 8 PM and we will gear you up for a small nominal cost of $15.00.

These are some friendly tips and reminders for all our residents as 2016 moves along. On behalf of the volunteers that make up your fire department, I want to thank the community we serve for supporting your local fire department and its members; together our community grows stronger.

Until next time – stay and play safe.
Kevin Crewe – Station Chief

The Beaver Bank Community Awareness Association wishes all students a safe and successful school year!

EMERGENCIES!! Are You Prepared?

With different emergency situations like the train derailments recently in New Brunswick and Quebec carrying very volatile petroleum products, the weather related ice/snow/power related events happening more and more, are we prepared for the worse?

EVACUATION from our homes with less than 10 minutes notice!!!

This is why Riverlake & District (Old name - District 2 ) Joint Emergency Management Team (JEM's) is working hard with HRM Emergency Management Operations (EMO) to develop, plan, organize and prepare to respond quickly to a wide range of emergency events. These events could include flooding, forest fires, plane/train/highway disasters, water disasters or any other catastrophic event.

The JEM's team is trying to be pro-active with monthly meetings, preparing communities for disastrous incidents by establishing Comfort Centers, Community Status Reporters (CSR's), planning and public education on how to prepare for a major incident. We work closely with police, fire, EMO and many of the other JEM's across HRM. With this in mind we need plans in place to implement in the event of a catastrophic incident. The where do we go? What do we do?, Where do we stay? Questions will have answers. JEM's would be a focal point if there was a serious incident within the communities.

The team is hoping that more awareness to JEM's will help increase the number of volunteers willing to participate. We are actively looking for people from our communities of Beaver Bank, Fall River, Grand Lake/Oakfield, Lake Fletcher, Lakeview, Waverley, Wellington and Goff's area who wish to get involved in some positions such as Community Status Reporters who are not required to leave their homes if something happens, just call in and report what the conditions are like in their area. If people are interested in joining and participating with the interest of their community in mind, the meetings are held at Fire Station 45 in Fall River every month on the 1st Thursday at 7pm except July, August & December.

Hello residents of District 14. My name is Lisa Blackburn and I am applying for the position of your city councillor. My family moved to Beaver Bank in 1979 and other than a few brief stints living in Sackville, Beaver Bank has been my home. When my daughter was born, there was no doubt District 14 is where I wanted to raise her.

My life journey has included a journalism career and the opportunity to volunteer for many wonderful organizations including the Cobequid Community Health Centre, the Metro United Way and our local schools. One of the most satisfying has been my work with the board of the Beaver Bank Kinsac Community Centre, keeping the centre alive after the devastating fire and seeing the completion of our new facility.

On October 15, I encourage you to vote for someone who stands for Accessibility, Accountability and Representation, your neighbour for almost 40 years, Lisa Blackburn.

Please see my website for more information www.lisablackburn.ca

Kevin Copley – a business professional with over a decade of progressive experience in the private sector is ready to serve the residents of District 14.

With a degree in Community Design, Kevin believes his education gives him a solid understanding of urban and rural planning – a background that will allow him to challenge council and city staff to make smart, region-wide decisions that respect and enhance the rural character of the communities in District 14.

Kevin volunteers as a member of HRM's North West Planning Advisory Committee, as a member of Beaver Bank Kinsac Elementary School Advisory Council, and on the board of directors of the Beaver Bank Community Awareness Association.

The husband and father of two young boys is committed to lifelong residency in the community. He enjoys the rural lifestyle with his family and believes the rural makeup of District 14 provides an attractive lifestyle choice.

Kevin will offer his constituents a strong voice on both local and regional issues. If elected, his knowledge of current issues will allow him to hit the ground running as the representative for District 14. For more info please visit <http://www.kevincopley.ca>

Brad Johns

Dear Friends and Neighbours,

It has been an honour and privilege to have had the opportunity to represent the residents of Beaver Bank over the past term and I respectfully ask that you allow me to continue to provide you with the representation the community deserves.

A lifelong resident of District 14, I am proud to be the fifth generation of my family to call this community home. I live and work here, and am now raising my two daughters here as well. I graduated from Sackville High in 1988 and went on to pursue a Bachelor of Arts degree in Canadian History from Mount St. Vincent University. While there I started a successful small business to help pay for my education, as well as working part-time with the School Board with special needs students, and two years with inner city youth. I was also the Camp Director for Camp Lone Cloud, a summer camp for youth located in Fall River, for four years. After university I was employed at HTB Junior High, as well as Monarch and Beaver Bank Kinsac elementary, where I was the schools Librarian, and although I planned to become a teacher, after encouragement from residents and family members, I ran and was successfully elected Councillor for Beaver Bank and Middle/Upper Sackville.

I enjoy working closely with people and have also volunteered extensively in the community. During University I became involved as a Scout Leader and started a Rover Crew under 2nd Beaver Bank group committee. Later my interest in volunteering and the well-being of the community led me to volunteer with the Sackville Kinsmen, where I won a number of awards including "Rookie of the year", and the Sackville - Beaver Bank Masonic Lodge where I eventually served as Lodge Master (President). I am also a past board member of the Springfield Lake Rec Center and was awarded a Life Membership for my contributions. Additionally, in my role as a fulltime Councillor I have had the opportunity to sit on over 25 community and HRM committees and boards, including the first Councillor to ever Chair the HRM-RCMP Police Commission.

I am very proud to have been responsible for the construction of the first Beaver Bank Kinsac Community Center and Fire Hall which has developed become the hub of the Beaver Bank community. In addition to numerous paving, playground upgrade, and new infrastructure projects throughout District 14, I have been able to directly assist a number of community groups with additional funds towards many worthwhile projects. Some of the main contributions over the past couple of years include: $35,000.00 to the Beaver Bank Community Awareness Association to purchase a new Beaver Bank Community LED announcement board and towards a portable speed radar, $6000.00 to the Beaver Bank Kinsac Community Center for stage and sound equipment, $22,500.00 to the Beaver Bank Brown Hall parking expansion and paving, as well as kitchen upgrades at the facility, $20,000.00 to the Beaver Bank Lions Club for their building expansion project and $47,500.00 for the new playground at Beaver Bank Kinsac Elementary, to be constructed this fall.

Since first elected I have been a strong supporter of Election Campaign Reform and have continually pushed to limit contributions by developers, special interest and lobby groups. During this election, as with all those in the past, I do not accept ANY campaign donations from residents or organizations. Unlike other candidate, some of who accept thousands of dollars from individuals and developers, when re-elected I owe nobody and my agenda is for the best interest of the community I represent only and not special interest groups or developers.

As we get closer to the October 15, 2016 election I will be knocking door-to-door visiting residents and handing out additional information. In the meantime if you have any questions or concerns please contact me at bradleyjohns@gmail.com or at 902-476-1234 or check out my webpage at www.bradjohns.ca

Good representation goes beyond making our concerns heard at Council; it also means listening to people and providing answers promptly. It means getting residents involved to find solutions that others overlooked and keeping people informed along the way. It means being able to look at the big picture while still addressing the needs of individual residents. It means putting the residents and community of District 14 first, before anything else in the municipality!

I respectfully ask for your support once more during this year's upcoming election.

A Ghostly Tale for Halloween

The Bulletin has featured Beaver Bank's famous story of the Devil's Footprints in a past editions but here is another local ghost story to give you shivers and put you in the Halloween spirit!

The Haunting of Springfield Lake

There is nothing but darkness, a black lake smooth as steel, and then a white light appears gliding across the water. As the shape nears the center of the lake, its blurred edges become sharp, and the once unrecognizable flash of light is transformed into a woman. She is young. Her long blond hair waving in the wind, while her white satin dress shimmers in the moonlight. She soars over the water's calm surface, her arms outstretched, and her mouth opened wide in a silent scream. She is the spirit who haunts Springfield Lake seeking vengeance against her murderer.

It was a warm spring night illuminated by a sea of stars when Mary Jones from Springfield Estates was murdered. The young woman had just returned from a dance in Middle Sackville with her husband Bobby, and she was still wearing her long white dress with the pearl buttons. She did not have time to change before she and her husband set out for Springfield Lake to fish. They were now waiting to snare their prey.

Unbeknownst to Mary, Bobby never wanted to marry her. It was her sister Agnes who he had always loved, but when he approached their father to ask his permission for her hand in marriage, the man persuaded Bobby to marry his eldest daughter. The man knew Agnes to be a conniving woman who was capable of securing her future even without Bobby. He was worried that Mary, although extremely beautiful and kind, would never marry due to her timid nature. Intent on providing a stable future for his lovely daughter, he bribed Bobby with a great deal of money to secure the union. Bobby took the money, and with it he brought upon himself and Mary a gruesome fate.

Bobby spent the first years of his marriage to Mary secretly resenting her, while he engaged in an affair with Agnes. In time, he and Agnes plotted the innocent woman, planning her murder so that Bobby would be free to marry his first love. It was decided that he would kill her after the spring dance, and she was now sitting across from him in the small fishing boat, gazing at him with love and adoration.

Mary turned away from Bobby and peered into the water, searching for some sign of life. Her husband leaned in towards Mary as if he was going to kiss her lips but instead his hands embraced her neck. He silenced her screams before there was time for them to erupt, while he tightened his grip until all signs of life left Mary's body. He weighed her body down with stones to help hide the evidence of his crime, and he rolled her body from the boat. She sank into the depths of the lake with her eyes open and face contorted into a horrified expression. He watched in silence until the last bubble of air broke through to the surface. He stared deeply into the now still waters, hoping that Mary's body would be forever concealed in its dark depths. He turned away from the gruesome scene and headed for the shore where Agnes anxiously awaited his return.

Mary continues to haunt Springfield Lake, patiently waiting for Bobby to return to the place where he robbed his wife of her life. If you see white light gliding over the lake, it is this phantom lady in search of vengeance, so BEWARE!

Routine Results Available Online - Federal and Provincial Governments Launch MyHealthNS to Improve Health Care in Nova Scotia

Doctors and patients in Nova Scotia can now get routine test results and share information through MyHealthNS, a new secure online tool.

Patients of participating physicians receiving results from the QEII Health Sciences Centre, the IWK Health Centre or other facilities in the Halifax, Eastern Shore and West Hants areas will now be able to access this information on their smartphone or other web-enabled devices.

The system will be expanded to all other parts of the province by early 2017, making Nova Scotia the first province in Canada to offer a digital health service option province wide.

MyHealthNS will allow patients to receive, view and manage their personal health information electronically, making it more convenient, and in some cases saving them a visit to the clinic to get information like normal test results. It will also mean more appointments available to be booked for those who need to see a doctor in person.

To find out more about MyHealthNS, and to register for the service, patients and doctors can visit, <http://myhealthns.ca>.

Apply Now For Antlerless Deer Hunting Stamps

Now is the time for Nova Scotia hunters to apply for antlerless deer hunting stamps for this fall's hunting season. There are 6,200 stamps available.

Qualified hunters can apply online, using a credit card for the $8.04 fee, at: <http://novascotia.ca/natr/draws/deerdraw/>. They may also apply by calling 1-900-565-3337 and the fee will be billed directly to the landline phone. Applications will be taken until Aug. 31 at midnight.

The stamp is applied to a deer hunting licence to provide the legal permission to hunt antlerless deer. Controlling the number of does is a major part of sustainably managing the deer population in Nova Scotia. This year, hunters may harvest one deer of either sex with just a regular hunting licence in zone 107. A limited number of antlerless stamps are available in zones 101,102,103, 104,105,106,108 and 109. None are available in zones 110,111 and 112.

Applicants are encouraged to know the deer management zone boundaries before they apply. Zone information is at <http://novascotia.ca/natr/draws/deerdraw/ddZones.asp>. The number of stamps available, by deer management zone, is at

A computerized, random draw will take place on Sept. 1. Winners will be notified by mail so applicants are encouraged to confirm their mailing addresses when applying. Applicants can also check their individual draw results online at, <http://novascotia.ca/natr/draws/deerdraw>, beginning at noon on Sept. 2.

Approval Given for Hiring of New Doctors

The Nova Scotia Health Authority has given approval for the hiring of new doctors for the Halifax area including one for Beaver Bank. This is one of many positions currently available for family doctors across the province and recruitment is currently underway.
