New Councillor for District 14

Lisa Blackburn wins municipal election for District 14.

On October 15th, District 14 voters elected a new municipal councillor – Lisa Blackburn of Beaver Bank. It was a very close race but Lisa managed to eke out the victory by a margin of 47 votes.

Lisa has lived in Beaver Bank for over 35 years. She has a Bachelor's degree in Journalism and has worked in radio, television and newspaper as well as new media.

On her Facebook page Lisa thanked her opponents for a "solid and strong campaign". She commended Brad Johns for his work within the community and stated that she was looking forward to working with Kevin Copley in the future on matters of planning and development. Lisa also thanked her family and volunteers of her campaign. She stated "to the voters of District 14. This is the end of the job interview and I am looking forward to going to work for you".

Interestingly 4829 out of a possible 16195 votes were cast in District 14 for the municipal election. This accounted for only 29.82% rate of participation despite the several different methods available for casting a vote.

Regardless of the number of votes cast, the winner was clear. Congratulations to Lisa Blackburn. We look forward to what the future has in store for us.

Update from Station 48

Cooler Weather is Here, Old Man Winter is Not That Far Away

Greetings on behalf of the volunteers of the Beaver Bank –Kinsac Volunteer Fire Department. Your fire department continues to keep busy with training, responding to calls, and most recently visiting our local schools for Fire Prevention Week activities.

Since the last update we have responded to 37 pages for assistance; 21 medical assists, 6 alarms activated, 4 structure fires, 2 calls of trees on power lines, 1 motor vehicle accident, 1 illegal burn, 1 carbon monoxide detection and 1 smoke investigation. This brings our total to 125 calls so far this year which is an increase in the number of calls we usually have for this time in the year. Pages for medical assists made up the bulk of the responses for the late summer as we move into fall.

There are a couple of upcoming community events that your fire department will be participating in over the next little while which include the Remembrance Day service at the cenotaph next to the fire station and the Annual Parade of Lights. We hope you can make it out for these important community events.

Your fire department would like to thank everyone for burning responsibly this past summer and even though the official burn season is over according to the Department of Natural Resources; under the HRM Open Air Burning By-Law, homeowners must still adhere to the intent of the rules and follow the local by-laws. If unsure if you can or cannot burn, please visit the fire station on a Tuesday night between 7PM and 8 PM and we will be happy to answer your questions.

Even though hurricane season started in June and runs until November, the chance of wild weather visiting our region is higher this time of year. As we recently experienced in Atlantic Canada with the flooding in Cape Breton and parts of Newfoundland, you can never be too prepared for hurricanes, tropical storms, or even a good old Nor'easter which could come our way. It is always a good practice to have an emergency kit that can support you and your family for 72 hours without outside assistance. Being prepared before an event occurs is a good practice and you are ready if a real emergency arises.

With the cooler weather approaching, your friendly neighborhood firefighters would like to pass along some tips to keep you and your family safe as we move closer to winter and when the snow begins to fly.

Many of our residents have chimneys and wood burning appliances that heat our homes when the temperature begins to dip down. Before you fire up the woodstove for the first time, check your woodstove, or your furnace, and the chimney. Make sure all is in order with the wood burning device and the chimney is clean and ready to go. If you discover any issues and need it checked, call your local service technician. If you are a person who burns wood to keep your home warm, burn only seasoned firewood as it burns better and cleaner. Most chimney fires can be prevented if the wood burning device is well kept, and the chimney kept clean.

With the cooler temperatures, black ice and eventually snow covered roads won't be long appearing. Please drive for the road conditions. Build in a little extra time to get to your destination as road conditions can change quickly with the oncoming cold weather. Keep your car windows clear of ice and snow (including the vehicle roof in case you have to brake suddenly), the windshield washer fluid topped up and if you haven't thought about it yet, maybe throw on the winter tires sooner rather than later. Don't be caught unprepared for when the first snowfall makes its grand entrance.

These are some friendly tips and reminders for all our residents as 2016 moves along. On behalf of the volunteers that make up your fire department, I want to thank the community we serve for supporting your local fire department and its members; together our community grows stronger.

Until next time –
stay and play safe.

Kevin Crewe – Station Chief

HRM Volunteer Awards

Each year the Halifax Regional Municipality recognizes the extraordinary contributions of individuals and groups who volunteer their time and skills to provide services and programs in municipal communities.

Do you know a deserving group or individual? Why not nominate them today? Nominations are now being accepted for the 2017 Volunteer Awards. Nominations will close December 16, 2016. Please visit: <https://www.halifax.ca/volunteerservices/awards/>

A Message from Darrell Samson, M.P.

Dear friends,
I would first like to take the time to inform all of you on the government's upcoming pre-budget consultations. We are launching this consultation early in order to hear from all Canadians about how budget 2017 should look and what elements will best support the population. If you have ideas for budget 2017, please submit them at <http://www.canada.ca/budget-2017>

I am also pleased to report that I've had the opportunity to visit the Trauma Healing Centre in Cole Harbour on October 12th. The Trauma Healing Centre is a resource center for anyone suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, trauma, chronic pain or other illnesses. It was great to see first-hand how this organization helps people afflicted by these types of illnesses including veterans, RCMP, first responders and civilians.

On October 6th I had the opportunity to participate in a video celebrating International Teachers Day. Alongside other MPs and Prime Minister Trudeau, I shared my thoughts on what it's like to be an educator and I emphasized the important roles teachers play in shaping our youth. If you would like to see the video, please visit my Facebook page.

I also had the opportunity to announce funding through the government's Business Development Program for Sky Squirrel Technologies in Hammonds Plains. Sky Squirrel Technologies is a technology company that specializes in creating drones that help farmers see high quality images of their crops and allows them to analyze plant health data. These drones also allow them to increase the efficiency of crop production. It's exciting to see that there is so much innovation in our province.

Finally, I am happy to report that our Constituency Youth Council is coming together. We have received numerous applications and will be sending out letters to successful candidates in the upcoming weeks. I would like to thank all the young individuals who applied and I am looking forward to meeting with our council in the upcoming months. Together we can make a difference for youth in our community.

Government Initiatives
Employment Insurance (EI)
Consultations – Flexible and inclusive benefits:
The Minister of Families, Children and Social

Development, Jean-Yves Duclos, launched an online consultation to seek the views of Canadians on providing more flexible EI maternity and parental benefits as well as more inclusive caregiving benefits for Canadians who provide care to a family member. Between October 6 and November 4, 2016, Canadians can provide their thoughts through the ESDC Consultations portal on what is important to them and how they could benefit from additional support. If you would like to submit your feedback on Employment Insurance please visit goo.gl/Gipplh.

Remembrance Day:

This month I would like to take a moment to acknowledge and remember all of men and women currently serving in the Canadian Armed Forces and those who have served in the past. It is because of their bravery and strength that we are able to live freely here in Canada and I thank them.

Beaver Bank Kinsac Community Centre Seeks Volunteers

The Beaver Bank Kinsac Community Centre is run by a Board of Directors who volunteer a great amount of hours to keep this facility open for the community. They plan and run many events throughout the year.

There are only 15 Members on the board which can make for many hours of volunteering. We are looking for members from the community who would like to volunteer for some of the events to take some of the load off the board members. We know there are people out there who don't want to be on the board but don't mind helping out now and then and there are few people who already do.

We would like to create a list of people we can call or send the event list to and they can let us know if they can help out.

The events that we usually put on during the year are: New Year's Eve Dance, Breakfast with the Easter Bunny, Canada Day, Chase The Ace, Youth Dances, Remembrance Day, and Breakfast with Santa, to name a few. Maybe with some help from the community we can run even more events.

If you are interested and want to put your name on the list you can call the community centre at 902.865.5114 or email bbkcc@eastlink.ca. Joan will collect your name, phone number and email address, and if there is a particular event you are interested in helping with. You may even want to co-organize or run an event with another friend. The bigger the list the more the work can be shared around. Hope to hear from you soon.

Many hands make light work.

Thanks

Easier Access to Heating Assistance Rebates

Government is making changes to the Heating Assistance Rebate Program that will make it easier and faster for Nova Scotians to apply for and receive their rebate.

The 2016-17 program will begin accepting applications on Monday, Oct. 31 and feature a new online application system and direct deposit option. Eligible applicants can receive up to a $200 rebate for heating assistance.

"We know some Nova Scotians struggle with the cost of heating their homes during the cold winter months," says Service Nova Scotia Minister Mark Furey. "Nova Scotians expect and want more government services to be available online and with this announcement we're doing just that."

The new online system will allow Nova Scotians to apply for the rebate online, and will allow both those who apply online and by paper form to check the status of their application online in real time. Before now, applicants had to call Service Nova Scotia to ask for an update on their application. Those registered for direct deposit with Canada Revenue Agency can also receive their rebate directly to their bank account.

Paper applications will still be available at Access Nova Scotia locations, Community Services' and MLA offices, or through more than 70 community groups and other locations across the province, and for print online.

"Last year, the program helped more than 42,600 citizens and families in the province stay warm during the cold winter months," said Mr. Furey. "It's my hope that we reach every Nova Scotian who can benefit from this program."

Beginning in 2017, the Heating Assistance Rebate Program will move to a fixed launch date.

For more information and to apply online, please visit <http://www.novascotia.ca/heatinghelp>.

Progress in Education - Update

Education has been a priority for this Government. In 2013, we ran on a platform to reinvest the $65 million that was cut from our classroom by the NDP government. We have done exactly that, increasing the Education budget each year.

Education Investments Overall

- Government reinvesting $65m to support 117 actions to improve student learning in the classroom

More Teachers and More professionals Supporting Teachers and Students

- 532 more teachers were hired in the first 3 years because of government reinvestment
- 114 reading recovery teachers (57 FTEs)
- Continued investment of $1.5 million in the Special Needs Support Grant for children with complex needs
- Continued student support grant funding of $2.1 million: $5,000 per school, plus $1.00 per student

Smaller Classes

- $22.6 million to reduce class sizes in elementary (primary to grade six)

Math and Literacy

- Government invested $17.5 million in math and literacy (math early interventionists, math and literacy mentors, reading recovery teachers, and literacy leads)

Teacher Advice and Involvement

- Teachers were involved in the streamlining of the grade 4 to 6 curriculum. These teachers codeveloped and facilitated the professional learning of the curriculum for all grades 4-6 teachers in the province

- Teachers and administrators contributed to the development of provincial teachers standards
- Teachers participated in a focus group on teacher preparedness as they leave their practicum and enter the classroom
- Consultation on the provincial student attendance policy included teachers and administrators who responded to an online survey, and who participated in online focus groups
- Teachers and administrators are being provided with ongoing professional development to support action plan priorities

Boutilier, Florence

In Loving memory of our Mom, Florence Boutilier, who passed away September 23, 2014.

Our lives go on without you
Though nothing is the same
We have to hide the heartache
When someone speaks your name
You did so many things for us
Your heart was kind and true
As long as we were happy
You were happy too

Message from the Editor

For the past 4 years I was very fortunate to have met many wonderful people within Beaver Bank while volunteering as Editor of the Beaver Bank Kinsac Bulletin. However as the saying goes "all good things must come to an end". Due to a number of conflicting demands on my time I am no longer able to continue bringing the Bulletin to the community. Unfortunately this will be my last issue. The deadline for the next issue is still set for December 15th. Please send submissions through our website and they will be directed accordingly. I am hopeful that someone will be interested in taking on the very rewarding opportunity to edit future Bulletins. I would be happy to provide them with guidance and coaching to get them started. Please contact Victor Cobb for more information and to arrange for a meeting if you are interested in getting involved.

To all those who contributed to the Bulletin's content –thank you! It has been a pleasure bringing your messages, announcements, information, pictures and stories to the community.

I will continue to serve on the board for the Beaver Bank Community Awareness Association as we provide support for the betterment of the community. Please keep checking the digital sign at the entrance to the community for the latest announcements or visit our Facebook page and website regularly to stay up-to-date on information and events available to you.

Sincerely,

Keillie Samson

Guidelines for Submissions to the Bulletin

The BBK Bulletin will be published 6 times this year (January, March, May, July, September & November). The deadline will usually be the 15th of the month before publication. Please check the last page of the current Bulletin for the specific deadline date.

Written submissions may be sent by email using the "Submit a Story" form on the Beaver Bank website. For handwritten articles, please PRINT any names. Articles may also be mailed to our mailing address. Thank you.

Please submit articles for the next Bulletin by December 15th for publication in January.
